

gastrointestinal nursing

volume 6 number 6 July/August 2008

editorial

- 3 Your experiences are worth sharing!

news

- 4 Private clinic offers screening help to Welsh Assembly; Stoma nurses to be employed by pharmacists?; Safety in numbers with colon cancer; Oesophagogastric CNSs are 'pillars of the system'; Soundbites

features

- 8 Journal scan

clinical

- 10 A guide to providing culturally appropriate care
An introduction to the challenge of to bringing to a multi-ethnic society a high quality of care that meets the appropriate needs of the patient
- 18 Maintenance treatment of IBD: patient adherence and current practice Summarising the new formulations of 5-ASA available, their potential effect on patient adherence, and the implications for practice in the role of the clinical nurse specialist
- 26 Changes in bowel function after stoma closure Exploring evidence-based and consensus theory regarding post-stoma closure, which can cause the common symptoms of frequency, urgency and incontinence
- 32 Update on immunosuppressive agents in gastroenterology Review of approaches to targeting specific components of the immune system in the context of organ transplantation and inflammatory bowel disease

People with a family history of colorectal cancer actually have a lower chance of recurrence or death than those who don't, says a new study in the Journal of the American Medical Association (p 4)

10 Overview: cultural competence in GI nursing

18 Review: patient adherence in the use of 5ASAs